CLARK FILES SUIT AGAINST A. ROSS HILL

Former M. U. Law Professor Asks $50,000 Damages—
Notice Served This Forenoon.

HINTS AT MORE SUITS

Petition Charges President With Publishing Malicious and Defamatory Statements.

Prof. George L. Clark, who was dismissed recently by the Board of Curators from the faculty of the School of Law, brought suit against President A. Ross Hill of the University this morning for $50,000 damages.

Clark bases his suit on a statement issued by the members of the faculty of the School of Law in which four members of that faculty state that in their belief the dismissal of Clark by the board was warranted. He charges in his petition that President Hill "published and caused to be published this statement." As a result Clark alleges that his good name has been injured and that his reputation has been impaired.

Clark asks for $25,000 actual and $25,000 punitive damages.

FILES SUIT HIMSELF

Clark filed the suit himself at about 9 o'clock this morning. He had just returned from St. Louis where the petition was prepared by a St. Louis firm of attorneys. He showed much anxiety over the problem of getting the papers served on President Hill before he should leave Columbia. Sheriff Fred C. Brown served notice of the suit on President Hill during the forenoon and at the same time served papers calling for depositions to be taken in Washington, D. C., in connection with the suit.

In the office of the circuit clerk, Clark intimated that other suits would follow.
He did not mention any names.

The petition carries the names of these attorneys: Ralph T. Finley, of St. Louis, and the St. Louis firm of lawyers, Abbott, Fountain, Callen & Edwards.

The statement on which the suit is based and which was published in the Evening Missourian on January 31 is as follows:

"The members of the law faculty of the University gave out this statement today regarding the dismissal of Prof.
George L. Clark:

"It has come to our attention that Dr.
George L. Clark, lately a professor of law in the University of Missouri School of Law, but who was dismissed recently from this position, is claiming publicly throughout the state and elsewhere that his dismissal by the Board of Curators was improper and unjust. We, of the Faculty of Law of the University of Missouri, desire to state that in our opinion there were good and sufficient grounds for his dismissal. It is also our belief, based on facts known to us, that Doctor Clark, at the time that this action was taken by the Board of Curators, had ceased to be a useful member of the faculty and in our opinion, was not fitted to continue his associations with the School of Law.

"J. P. McBRINE
"J. L. PARKS
"KENNETH C. SEARS
"STANLEY H. UDY"

REFUSES TO MAKE STATEMENT

Clark's petition states that he was employed as a professor in the School of Law for seven years and that he was dismissed by the Board of Curators on November 29, 1920. The petition next states that the statement of the law teachers, already referred to, was published and caused to be published by Clark, and that on account of it he has suffered great mortification and shame.
The petition then states that Clark has been damaged to the amount named.

Clark refused this afternoon to comment on his suit. He repeated his intention, however, that more suits were to be instituted.

NO WHISKEY IN DRUG STORES

Mexico Nearest Town Able to Fill Prescriptions for It.

Columbia is indeed a dry town as far as prescription whiskey is concerned.
Not a drug store in the city has any whiskey on hand and should an epidemic of snake bites break out the results might prove disastrous. A whiskey prescription would not be worth the paper on which it was written, unless the proud possessor were able to take enough time off to present it in some city outside of Columbia. Mexico is the nearest oasis at present where such a prescription may be filled.

The burning of the Haden Building destroyed the supply of whiskey carried by the only drug store in the city which had a government license to fill prescriptions for liquor.

CHARGED WITH IRISH MURDER

CORK, IRELAND, Feb. 28.—Six Sinn ing squad at the military barracks here today. They had been sentenced by a court martial, five being charged with complicity in a proposed ambush and the other with carrying a revolver.

APPROPRIATIONS BILL IN

Measure Provides $2,651,100 for the University at Columbia.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 28.—The last action taken in the House of Representatives late Saturday afternoon was to receive a report from the committee on appropriations, which provided for increases in the University budget, allowing $150,000 for a women's building and $35,000 for an extension to the Medical Building, in addition to items previously agreed upon.

The committee report was ordered printed and to be given priority over other reports to be printed. It must now come before the house for approval or amendment.

The total amount now recommended for the University—exclusive of the Rolla School of Mines, which is listed for $533,000—is now placed at $2,651,100.
Within two minutes after Representative F. H. Hopkins, chairman of the committee on appropriations, had submitted his report, the house moved to adjourn until Monday morning.

RESIGNATION DATE NOT SET

on Date of President's Leaving.

The Executive Board of the University, shall go into effect. A meeting of the entire Board of Curators will be held in St. Louis next Thursday.

and ask for the custody of their four children.

BILL WILL AID 47 DISTRICTS IN BOONE COUNTY

Passage of Unit Measure Will Mean Competent Teachers and Longer Terms of School.

EQUAL TAXES FOR ALL

$36 a Pupil Will Be Spent Each Year Instead of $13, Which Is Present Outlay.

If the County Unit Bill which was engaged by the House Friday and which, according to sponsors of the bill, will in all probability pass both houses on this reading and final passage, becomes a law, it will mean that forty-seven districts in Boone County which are under the present system are able to have school only six or seven months of the school year, will be able to have an eight months school, secure better equipment and employ a competent teacher.

In the county there are eighty-eight school districts. Of these forty-seven are voting the 65 cents limit of the present law and are still unable to provide for an efficient school, owing to the low property valuation. Other schools in the county which are located in rich districts are able to support a school adequately by an assessment of only 35 or 40 cents.

Under the County Unit bill the majority of schools of the county would benefit owing to the fact that it would be possible to make taxes in all of the districts uniform. All money raised by school taxes would go into a general fund and be apportioned to the schools. The objection that the wealthy school districts would help the poorer ones has been raised by opponents of the bill, but, according to Charles E. Northcutt, County superintendent of schools, this would not be unfair, as the same tax rate per $100 valuation would be paid by all. The bill as it now stands fixes the limit as 65 cents.

The bill also provides that when this limit of 65 cents is voted and less than 20 cents per pupil in the rural schools and 35 cents a day for pupils in high schools is raised by it, the state will supply the deficit. The average spent for each pupil in rural schools under the present system is $13 for a year. Under the proposed bill this amount would be raised to about $36.

"The present system," says Mr. Northcutt, "works a hardship on pupils who live in districts where the assessed valuation does not permit an efficient school.
In the county last year there were 1,100 children who went to schools which were able only to have terms of 120 days each.
These children were forced to do the same work that is done in eight month schools and to take the same examinations. Of course this is almost impossible with the equipment that many of these schools have. It usually means that the pupils have to spend from two to three years longer in the grades than they otherwise would. The County Unit bill will mean adequate buildings, good teachers and an equal chance for children in all districts in Boone County."

don Today.

ference by the experts. The German delegation will arrive at 5 p. m.

BAPTIST REVIVAL BEGINS

Church Crowded at Both Morning and Evening Services.

Revival services at the First Baptist Church began yesterday morning with Dr. W. M. Vines, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Norfolk, Va., preaching on "Fundamentals." Doctor Vines said, "The three fundamentals that are the very foundation of ethics, doctrine and all thinking are: The Soul's capacity for religion; its call for revelation, and its choice of values. Man is incurably religious and religion is natural," he declared.

"I'd not say that a man who has no religion has a 'bungalow mind,' but he certainly has no upper story," he asserted.

At the evening services, Doctor Vines delivered a sermon on the defense of the church and religion. The choir of 48 voices, organized and directed by J. P.
Schellkopf, rendered special songs at both services. Preaching services will begin at 7:30 o'clock every evening this week, according to announcement made last night.

The church was crowded. Many persons stood throughout the services.

LOWERING PAY CAUSES STRIKE

Workmen of Haden Building Now Ask for Fifty Cents an Hour.

The work of tearing down the Haden Building has been discontinued because the laborers refused to work for 30 cents an hour, a cut of 10 cents an hour from their wages of the past two weeks. Ten men have been employed on the job and this morning only one started to work at the new wage. He was persuaded by the other laborers, previously on the job, to stop.

The work is being done by J. W. Carter, administrator of the Haden heirs, under the supervision of George Christ, a contractor.

The men who have been working on the job have agreed not to go back to work unless they receive 50 cents an hour, a raise of 10 cents an hour over their previous wage.

WILL DECREASE LIQUOR RAIDS

Revenue Agents Must Have Search Warrants, Says
Supreme Court.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Revenue agents must have search warrants to invade private homes hunting for liquor, the Supreme Court decided today.

The decision, it is believed, will prevent widespread prohibition raids unless the federal government has sufficient information to obtain a search warrant.
The Supreme Court set aside the conviction of Lawrence Amos of South Carolina for having moonshine whiskey in his possession. Amos claimed that the liquor had been taken from his home without a search warrant. The court ordered the liquor returned to him.

DISCUSS NEW GAS RATES AT MASS MEETING

Citizens Gather to Hear Arguments of Members of New Company on the Proposed Change.

CLAIM $2 IS FAIR RATE

Promise Readjustment When Prices Drop—P. M. Klass Gives Columbians'
Viewpoint.

The arguments for and against the proposed increase in the rate charged for gas in Columbia were presented to the local consumers at a meeting this afternoon in the Circuit Court room of the courthouse. John R. Cullinan and Thomas D. Miller, of St. Louis, two of the men who have contracted to purchase the local plant from the Watts Engineering Co., were here to explain the views of the new company. Percy M. Klass of Columbia, who has filed a protest with the Public Service Commission against the rates asked by the new owners, spoke for those who are opposed to an increase in the price of gas.

E. Sydney Stephens, who called the meeting to order, first asked Mr. Cullinane to present the views of the purchasers of the plant.

Mr. Cullinan said that he and his partners, Mr. Miller and William M.
Fitch, had entered into an agreement with the Watts Engineering Co. to purchase the local plant for $100,000, provided that they could get a good franchise and afterward a schedule of rates that would justify them in operating the plant. He said that they would also have to make an expenditure of about $25,000 for improvements and extension of the mains.

According to Mr. Cullinan, the schedule of rates recently announced, ranging from $2 a thousand for the first 3,000 cubic feet and then to $1.50 for amounts over 3,000 cubic feet were simply "preliminary rates," intended as a starting point for definitely fixing the permanent rates.

The commission's records show, according to Mr. Cullinan, that a number of towns in the state the size of Columbia have been given approximately a $2 rate, the exact rate varying in individual instances from a few cents below $2 to a few cents above that amount. Among these cities he named Hannibal, Moberly, Kirksville, Cape Girardeau and Mexico.
He also pointed out Columbia's inconsistent position in regard to freight rates.

"We realize that before long the prices of things will be more satisfactory and we will have to adjust our rates accordingly. I will go farther than that and say that when conditions get right we will voluntarily reduce our rates," Mr.
Cullinan added. "We know we can give you good service. As to whether or not the $2 rate is proportionately high, we consider the fact that the commission has given a $2 rate to most towns in this vicinity as the best evidence that the $2 rate is necessary."

Following Mr. Cullinan's talk Mr.
Klass asked permission to present his ideas of the rate question "from the citizen's viewpoint." The meeting was still in progress at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

HOUSTON REFUSES LETTERS

fore the Senate for contempt, Senator to furnish correspondence relating to foreign loans before the State Department had passed on the documents.

Farm Loan Act Is Upheld.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The federal Farm Loan Act was declared constitutional by the Supreme Court.

Voices Hushed as Drill Works Through Night to Rescue Miners

By United Press.
DOWELL, Feb. 28.—Today they can hear the drill—if they can hear.

Seven men are crouching in a forlorn gallery of the Cathline mine—listening to the tap, tap of the drill driving inresistibly toward them—or seven fireblackened bodies are turning deaf ears to the sound.

The 4-inch hole is nearing the little gallery where it is hoped that the seven miners caught in the fire at the mine were able to barricade themselves. At sunrise, as the light spread over the mine buildings, the 4-inch hole, cased with iron reached the 100-foot mark.
There is fifty feet to go yet with the worst drilling ahead. It is expected that a layer of limestone will be struck today and will delay reaching the goal until tomorrow.

All through the long Sunday the rescue work continued while the church bells tolled their summons and the Sunday quiet hung like a pall over the countryside. Little groups of people stood near the drill with their voices hushed. Many relatives and friends of the men were there. They breathed a prayer and turned away. In the churches special prayers were offered for the men.

As the steel point nears its goal, preparations are being made to care for the men if they are found alive. Soup and other food is being prepared. Drinking water is near at hand and long tubes through which fresh air will be forced into the vault when the hole is through are ready. According to the latest plans, ropes will be lowered when the drilling is completed. If any signal is received from the depths food and air will be rushed through the hole and then attention turned to the opening of the main shaft and reaching the beleaguered men.
If the fire is still burning, the men will be fed through the 4-inch hole until it is out.

LEGAL BATTLE OVER REWARD

Payment Stopped on Check When James Dennis Claims a Share.

By United Press.
BLOOMINGTON, Feb. 23.—A bitter legal battle developed today over the $25,000 reward paid Paul Draper of Heyworth for the apprehension of William Dalton, the 17-year-old boy who stole $772,000 from the Northern Trust Co. of Chicago.

Draper deposited a check for the amount in the National Bank of Hey-worth. Immediately afterward the bank was served with a warrant restraining payment until James Dennis' claim to a share had been tried in court.

NEW CHURCH HERE CERTAIN

Lutherans Will Build Edifice at Cost of $20,000.

"We are sure of a Lutheran Church in Columbia and hope to have the building constructed by the end of the year," said the Rev. William Hollenberg, superintendent of Missions of the Lutheran Church, at a meeting yesterday afternoon.

More than $2,000 has been contributed for the work and the ultimate goal has been changed from $10,000 to $20,000.
A committee has been appointed to select a suitable site for the building, which will include an assembly hall for social affairs.

Students will form a large part of the congregation and the church will be designed to fit their particular needs. An architect from St. Louis probably will have charge of the work.

COUNCIL PUTS BAN ON DANCES

Student Board Blacklists the Shuffle—Official Chaperons to Watch.

All forms of objectionable dancing, such as the shuffle and the toddle, were put on the black list by the Student Council of the University, in a special meeting Saturday afternoon. This action was taken following the recommendation of the faculty discipline committee, and is in accordance with similar steps taken by other universities throughout the country.

This new ruling will be enforced by a set of official chaperons who will be approved by the discipline committee. The Saturday night assemblies in the Daniel Boone Tavern will be officially chaperoned, and all private dances will have to be chaperoned by faculty members approved by the faculty discipline committee.

The new ruling, as passed by the Council, follows:
"The Student Council believing that it is the sense of the majority of student body that certain types of dancing are detrimental to the University of Missouri, and are opposed to the best student interests, do hereby pass the following rules:

"Such types of dancing as the Shuffle, the Toddle, the Camel Walk, the Check to Check and other objectionable forms are forbidden.
"Violators of this aforesaid regulation will be summarily dealt with by the discipline committee of the University of Missouri."

Fred Elden, student president, appointed a special committee from the Student Council to meet with the Savitar Board in the near future, in an attempt to revise parts of the Savitar constitution. The clauses in reference to nominations for the various offices are not satisfactory, and have been the subject of much debate every year.

Mr. Elden outlined what progress has been made in the Student Memorial campaign, and what the tentative plans for the future were.
